Annie,

Ferro Concrete were the ones that created our logo, not our website. I know that the team that created the logo has left Ferro Concrete. Would you want the contact info for the lead person that worked on our logo? I understand they opened up their own firm in Downtown.

Howdy Joanne and Mike,

My boss has asked me about the company above. After doing some research, looks like they designed the DCBID's website. Do either of you have a contact there? I'm happy to send the info... just want to invite them to the 5k and perhaps support the event.

Thanks!
